Valuing diversity and promoting inclusion and equality policy

We are committed to ensuring that our setting is fully inclusive in meeting the needs of all children.

We recognise that children and their families come from a wide range of backgrounds with individual needs, beliefs and values. They may grow up in family structures that include one or two parents of the same or different sex. Children may have close links or live with extended families of grandparents, aunts, uncles and cousins; while other children may be more removed from close kin, or may live with other relatives or foster carers. Some children come from families who experience social exclusion, severe hardship; discrimination and prejudice because of their ethnicity, disability and/or ability, the languages they speak, their religious or personal beliefs, their sexual orientation and marital status. Some individuals face discrimination linked to their gender and some women are discriminated against because of their pregnancy and maternity status. We understand that all these factors can affect the well-being of children within these families and may adversely impact on children's learning, attainment and life outcomes.

We are committed to anti-discriminatory practice to promote equality of opportunity and valuing diversity for all children and families using our setting. We aim to:

- promote equality and value diversity within our setting and foster good relations with the local community;
- actively include all families and value the positive contribution they make to our setting;
- promote a positive non-stereotyping environment that promotes dignity, respect and understanding of difference in all forms;
- provide a secure and accessible environment in which every child feels safe and equally included;
- Promote our British Values (see British Values Policy) of Democracy, Rule of Law, Individual Liberty and Mutual Respect and Tolerance,
- improve our knowledge and understanding of issues relating to anti-discriminatory practice,
- challenge and eliminate discriminatory actions on the basis of a protected characteristic as defined by the Equality Act (2010) namely:
  - age;
  - gender;
  - gender reassignment;
  - marital status;
  - pregnancy and maternity;
  - race;
  - disability;
  - sexual orientation; and
  - religion or belief.
- where possible, take positive action to benefit groups or individuals with protected characteristics who are disadvantaged, have a disproportional representation within the setting or need different things from the setting.

Agreed by the Committee of Longleaze Pre-School and Nursery at the AGM dated November 2022.

Signed by the Chairperson on behalf of the Committee.....

To be reviewed at the next AGM in November 2023.

British values policy

We actively promote inclusion, equality of opportunity, the valuing of diversity and British values.

Under the Equality Act 2010, which underpins standards of behaviour and incorporates both British and universal values, we have a legal obligation not to directly or indirectly discriminate against, harass or victimise those with protected characteristics. We make reasonable adjustments to procedures, criteria and practices to ensure that those with protected characteristics are not at a substantial disadvantage. As we are in receipt of public funding (Government funding of free entitlement) we also have a public sector equality duty to eliminate unlawful discrimination, advance equality of opportunity, foster good relations and publish information to show compliance with the duty.

Social and emotional development is shaped by early experiences and relationships and incorporates elements of equality and British and universal values. The Early Years Foundation Stage (EYFS) supports children's earliest skills so that they can become social citizens in an age-appropriate way, that is, so that they are able to listen and attend to instructions; know the difference between right and wrong; recognise similarities and differences between themselves and others; make and maintain friendships; develop empathy and consideration of other people; take turns in play and conversation; avoid risk and take notice of rules and boundaries; learn not to hurt/upset other people with words and actions; understand the consequences of hurtful/discriminatory behaviour.

The fundamental British values of democracy, rule of law, individual liberty, mutual respect and tolerance for those with different faiths and beliefs are already implicitly embedded in the 2014 EYFS and are further clarified below, based on the Fundamental British Values in the Early Years guidance (Foundation Years 2015):

- Democracy, or making decisions together (through the prime area of Personal, Social and Emotional Development)
  - As part of the focus on self-confidence and self-awareness, practitioners encourage children to see their role in the bigger picture, encouraging them to know that their views count, to value each other's views and values, and talk about their feelings, for example, recognising when they do or do not need help.
  - Practitioners support the decisions that children make and provide activities that involve turn-taking, sharing and collaboration. Children are given opportunities to develop enquiring minds in an atmosphere where questions are valued.
- Rule of law, or understanding that rules matter (through the prime area of Personal, Social and Emotional Development)
  - Practitioners ensure that children understand their own and others' behaviour and its consequence.
  - Practitioners collaborate with children to create rules and the codes of behaviour, for example, the rules about tidying up, and ensure that all children understand rules apply to everyone.
- Individual liberty, or freedom for all (through the prime areas of Personal, Social and Emotional Development, and Understanding the World)
  - Children should develop a positive sense of themselves. Staff provide opportunities for children to develop their self-knowledge, self-esteem and increase their confidence in their own abilities, for example through allowing children to take risks on an obstacle course, mixing colours, talking about their experiences and learning.
  - Practitioners encourage a range of experiences that allow children to explore the language of feelings and responsibility, reflect on their differences and understand we are free to have different opinions, for example discussing in a small group what they feel about transferring into Reception Class.
- Mutual respect and tolerance, or treating others as you want to be treated (through the prime areas of Personal, Social and Emotional Development, and Understanding the World) ○ Practitioners create an ethos of inclusivity and tolerance where views, faiths, cultures and races are valued and children are engaged with the wider community.

- Children should acquire tolerance, appreciation and respect for their own and other cultures; know about similarities and differences between themselves and others, and among families, faiths, communities, cultures and traditions.
- Practitioners encourage and explain the importance of tolerant behaviours, such as sharing and respecting other's opinions.
- Practitioners promote diverse attitudes and challenge stereotypes, for example, sharing stories that reflect and value the diversity of children's experiences and providing resources and activities that challenge gender, cultural or racial stereotyping.

In setting it is not acceptable to:

- actively promote intolerance of other faiths, cultures and races
- fail to challenge gender stereotypes and routinely segregate girls and boys ○ isolate children from their wider community
- fail to challenge behaviours (whether of staff, children or parents) that are not in line with the fundamental British values of democracy, rule of law, individual liberty, mutual respect and tolerance for those with different faiths and beliefs

Prevent Strategy

Under the Counter-Terrorism and Security Act 2015 we also have a duty "to have due regard to the need to prevent people from being drawn into terrorism" .

Agreed by the Committee of Longleaze Pre-School and Nursery at the AGM dated November 2022.

Signed by the Chairperson on behalf of the Committee.....

Special Educational Needs and Disability (SEND) Policy

The Children and Families Act 2014 requires local authorities to publish, in a single place, information on services and provision across education, transport, health and social care for children and young people aged 0-25 with special educational needs and disabilities (SEND). The purpose of this 'Local Offer' is to enable parents, carers and young people to see more clearly what services are available for children with SEND in their area and how to access them. The 'local offer' includes early years settings and all the information below forms our setting's current offer and shows how we have, for many years, provided for children with special educational needs and disabilities.

Identifying children with Special Educational Needs and Disabilities

- On induction to our pre-school the SENCO and all parents share information about the strengths and needs of the child to create a positive partnership.
- On-going observational assessments are made of all children and are linked to the Development Matters in the Early Years Foundation Stage and the Statutory Framework for the Early Years Foundation Stage.
- We undertake a 'progress check at age 2' which supplies parents/carers with a short written summary of their child's development.
- Reports from health care professionals may identify a child's individual needs and we will include these in the child's learning and development.

Supporting children with SEND

- Families will be supported for as long as it takes for their child to settle. We want all children to feel happy and safe with us.
- Where relevant, for example when a Health Care Plan is in place, an individual child specific risk assessment will be carried out.

This means using a step-by-step response through the various levels of intervention which are: discussion of a concern; targeted support; specialist support; and Education, Health and Care Plan (EHC).
- Our SENCO will explain how children's individual needs can be met by planning support using a written Individual Education Plan (IEP), My Support Plan, EHC or Health Care Plan.
- The Keyperson will oversee the IEP targets.
- IEP targets will be reviewed and new ones planned by the child's Keyperson, SENCO and parents.
- We access additional support from other professionals where necessary.
- Our SENCO will work with all other staff to ensure implementation of the IEP and subsequent continuity of care and education by everyone. • We ensure that parents are informed of their child's progress at all stages of assessment, planning, provision, monitoring and review.
- Learning Journals are available to view at any time and may be borrowed to take home.
- All documentation is kept securely to ensure confidentiality.
- Funding can be applied for to support your child.
